Steve focuses his practice on providing full service legal representation to individuals and businesses, with an emphasis on helping those in the healthcare, insurance and hospitality industries.

Steve prides himself on being a “one-stop-shop” for his clients. As head of the firm’s healthcare department, he helps physicians, dentists and veterinarians with all aspects of their professional and personal legal needs, including employment and partnership contracts, separation agreements, financing, lawsuits, disciplinary proceedings, buying, selling or starting a practice, billing and employment disputes, and insurance and government investigations. He has extensive experience with business transactions and litigation, real estate purchases and leases, employment issues and commercial disputes.

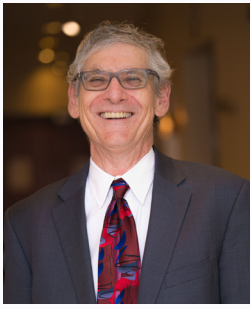

He is a former member of the Publisher’s Advisory Board for Doctor of Dentistry magazine. He also acted as an adjunct professor of law at Stevenson University in Baltimore, Maryland, teaching constitutional law, advanced civil procedure and legal research.
